Debute on Traffic Law.

The Common Council reported that it had falled to concur in the ordinance sixing the rate of toll for street cars on the Fiee Bridge, and the request for a conference was granted. The Council also reported that it had refused to concur in the ghost of a traffic ordinance adopted by the Board last month, and in lieu the Council sent. back for proposed so as to protect Frank-

Interminable delay."

Mr. Adams thought the ordinance should be put in proper shape before it was passed; that the Council should not begin amending it as soon as it was adopted. Mr. Gunst held that any delay was far more serious than the small defects mentioned.

How They Vest

From the lower branch came over for concurrence an ordinance authorizing the issuance of $1,400,000 in 4 per cent. bonds for public improvements, to cover the following, items: Mayo Bridge, and approaches, $251,000; site and old bridge, $112,850; Washington Bridge and approaches, $261,000; site and old bridge, $112,860; Washington Ward water supply, $90,000; gas holder and site, Washington Ward, $145,000; gewers, Washington , Ward, $150,000; public school buildings and sites, old city, $200,000; Ford Hotel block acquisition, $168,000; redemption of Manchester 5 per cent, bonds, $249,800; to meet any deficits, $23,350; total, $1,400,000.

Gunst Adds a Million. Gunst Adds a Million.

Mr. Gunst offered an amendment, adding an item of $1,000,000 for "paving and grading streets," making total issue $2,400,000. He spoke at some length in support of the amendment, arguing that the city was amply able to give what the citizens demanded. He did not object to any of the items of the bond issue, promising to vote (Continued on Third Page.)

AVIATOR BADLY HURT

Meets With Disaster on Last Stage of Niterbo, Italy, June 13.—The German aviator, Frey, who started from Rome at an early hour this morning on the last stage of the Paris-to-Turin all race, met with disaster in the mountainous territory lying between Viterbo and the capital. Only a few miles out of Rome Frey encountered a heavy fog and lost his course. Soon hed rove into a terrific storm of rain and hail. He tried to rise above the clouds, but his machine refused to respond. Suddenly it swoped downward, and the aviator lost all control. It fell into a ravine and was wrecked. That Frey was not killed was due to the heavy helmet pretecting his head and the marshy condition of the ground into which he plunged. Both his erms and one leg were broken, while he was badly cut about the face.

When a Red Cross searching party from the San Martino station, on Monte Cimone, found him he had lost much blood and was almost unconscious, burled under the aeroplane. The aviator was taken to the hospital at Ronciglione, suffering greatly, but was able to tell of having been lost in the fog although he could give no reason for the tall.

Frey's wife is now in Florence, where she hoped to be present at the landing of her husband. It is expected that she will come here to-morrow.

WILL PROCLAIM REPUBLIC

Constituent Assembly of Portugal to Assemble June 19.

Lisbon, Portugal, June 13.—The Cabinet yesterday considered the question of mobilizing the army. It was decided to reinforce the troops on the frontier and in the province of Algrave in case of necessity. An official account of the meeting of the ministers sets forth that the discussion of the mobilization had to do merely with the plan for the reorganization of the army.

An official decree issued to-day convokes the constituent assembly on June 19, when the Deputies whose seats have not been contested will proclaim the republic of Portugal. On the following day the provisional government will resign, but it is probable that its officers will be empowered to act until the new government has been regularly establisched.

EXTENSION GRANTED

Railrouds Have Until January 1, 1912, to Publish Rates.

Washington, D. C., June 13.—The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day granted to all railroads an extension of time from August 1 next to January 1, 1912, in which to publish their rates complying with the commission's requirement that where a commodity rate has been fixed between points of production and points of consumption, the same concession shall on application be granted to intermediate points. The railroads had contended in these cases that the intermediate points, being neither producing nor consuming points, were not entitled to the rate, but the commission held otherwise under the long and short-haul clause.

Russin's Minister to Pekin Going to European Post.

St. Petersburg, June 13.—The transfer of J. J. Korostovetz, Russian minister to China, to a European post, possibly at Lisbon, is contemplated. M. Kazakoff, head of the Far Eastern Department of the Foreign Office, may be appointed to the Pekin post. A final decision will not be reached before a month or six weeks.

Russo-Chinese relations are the cause of much concern to the Foreign Office, particularly in view of the impending revision of the Russo-Chinese treaty of 1881, the conflicting interpretations of which recently resulted in a diplomatic crisis, Unless renewed the treaty will expire in August.

must go on trial on the indictment charging him with a misdemeanor.
Justice Davis to-day denied a mot'on to quash the indictment against Reichmann, which the banker said was obtained only after his constitutional rights had been violated by compelling him to testify before the grand jury.
The prosecutor said he was prepared to try Reichmann to-morrow.

fering Money to Witnesses.

Viterpo, June 13.—A sensation was caused at the Camorrist trial this afternoon by the testimony of several women witnesses, who declared that they had been offered money by the wives of some of the prisoners, and also by Alessandro Lloy, one of the lawyers for the defense, to deny depositions previously made by them and to swear falsely. One witness added that she had refused to see Lloy and had notined a police official of the attempts made to have her commit perjury.

that she had refused to see Lloy and had notified a police official of the attempts made to have her commit perjury.

Lloy jumped to his feet and shouted "Liar."

The president of the court ordered the police official to take the witness stand, and instructed him to tell what happened. In the meahtime, the prisoners in the cage invelghed against the woman, calling her a spy.

The police official said that the mothers and wives of the accused Camorrists had tried to take several of the witnesses to Lloy. Lloy indignantly asked the official 'if he knew off anything against him, to which the official replied that he knew Lloy had spoken with Erricone's mistress at all nin in Viterbo. The president of the court ordered the proprietor and chambermaid of the inn to be interrogated on this subject.

At this point Lloy became furious and said that he would not permit himself to be made the constant object of inquiry. He preferred to abandon his post Lloy then took off his lawyer's gown and left the courtroom, and the president suspended the sitting.
